

foundational in terms of what "good and true" looks like in this world. We were talking about marriage one time and Cian said he thought the two of TRADER JOE'S you had the best marriage he had ever Gourmet Greeting Cards wit nessed.

Cian's powerful words about the importance of your presence got me thinking. It's so much more than our individual specific actions that help the world. It's how living a life devoted and committed to these actions goes out into the world and Inside Greeting lights the way for others in for being ways we may never know or see... Such has been your impact. Joe and Judy thank you for being an example of everything that's "right" with the world for Cian... and for me.

Joe and Judy - March 2022

Yesterday I got to celebrate Josiah's and Betty's birthdays (early!) with them. Cian and I met Dave, Becky and Josiah in Portland and all of us went to the Portland Trail Blazers game together. They won! And several players set personal best records. Then all of us drove to my hotel room and celebrated with lemon cake. Josiah's favorite. It was a wonderful evening! Our friendship has been one of the greatest gifts and blessings of my life.

Joe, when I told Cian about your health challenges, his response spoke volumes "Not Joe, I love Joe!" Joe and Judy, I can not count the number of times I have used the two of you as positive examples and role models in my conversations with Cian. Especially in terms of how you have lived your Catholic faith. I've been reflecting on things such as this, of late. Now we can make the most positive impact in the world, and what this "looks like" Cian's words were powerful in this regard. He has spent very little time with the two of you... and yet I believe your presence in his life has been
