LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

The Senior class of 1958, being of sound mind and body, here-by decree this, our Last Will and Testament to you, the Senior class of 1959. We, the Seniors, being about to pass from the halls of Waubun High, wish to leave to you, the Juniors, all the things we have or had hoped to have, along with all the exciting, happy or sad occasions are bequeathed to you with the understanding that the use of them will make your Senior year the happiest year of your high school career.

Ronald Aanerud leaves his ability to ask questions and to get into trouble to Mary Safar.
Darlene Ackerman wills her "weeks" in fifth hour study hall to Charles Morrison.
Kenny Ackerman wills his late and early hours to Gordon Weum.
Irene Anderson leaves to Helen Mortenson her love of Home Ec. classes.
Judy Baker wills her position as "class pest" (And what a pest!) to Don Bray.
Fern Baukol leaves all her troubles in Bookkeeping class to Dorothy Smith.
Joe Belland wills his wrestling ability to Merlin Williams.
Beatrice Benson bequeaths her "boldness" to Douglas Kindseth. Better watch out, Douglas!
Betty Blattenbauer wills her Carnival Queen crown to Lorraine Spaeth.
Marlene Blattenbauer leaves her "big" position as an office secretary to Iona Trapp. Have fun, Iona!
Dorothy Broucek wills her "six-foot frame" to Eileen Nelson.
Donald Doty wishes to pass on to Sharon Janousek his leisurely sleeps in Social class.
Cleo Farge would like to leave her Cheerleading ability to Maynette Spry.
Deloris Gomall wills to Barbara Jirava her fun-packed Saturday nights at Rainbow's End.
Donald Haugo leaves his track shoes in the possession of Dennis Saatoff.
Jean Hyatt wills "one of my friends" to Jimmy Neihaus.
Harold Jasken wishes to leave his curly hair to John Carriveau.
Roger Johnson wills his FFA pin to Joyce Stanhope.
Lois Kohler would like to pass on to Ernest Reller her "many laughs with Judy Baker" as they roam through the halls pestering a couple of teachers.
Charles LaDue leaves to Anton Rothschild his studious ways.
Pete LaDue wills his position in the "senior orchestra" to Larry Monroe.
Leo LaGue wills to Paul Teiken his position on the Basketball team.
Glenn Mischke wills his "crazy, mixed-up driving" to Dennis Spry.
Frankie Mislivec leaves his knack for giving "crazy parties" to Shirley Thelen.
Barbara Modey wills her Homecoming queen crown to Barbara Hanson.
Clyde Mortenson wills his "shyness" with girls to any Junior boy that needs it.
Marie Nelson bequeaths her height to Nancy Schmidt.
Marion Ohrt leaves her job of collecting slips to Betty Kersting.
Duane Pazdernik lawfully and generously wills his "smokey teeth" to Bob Charboneau.
Larry "Ross" Revier here-by wills his carefree days as a Senior to Annette "Speedy" Johnston.
Beverlee Roering leaves to Karin Morrison her "natural" blond hair.
Elaine Safar leaves her friendly smile and the ability to mind her own business to Ted Paulson.
Yvonne Scherping wills her quiet ways to Norrine Peterson. Yvonne, everybody knows that you are not quiet!
Carol Shouville leaves all her tough luck in Bookkeeping to Barbara Aanerud.
Kenny Teiken wills his marks without "apple polishing" to Mary Revier.
Joe Tembrock wills his long, wavy hair, plus his ability to think up scientific methods to get out of doing work to Delmar Fleisher.
Robert Thelen leaves to Bob Santwire his honorable nickname "Kitty".
Barbara Walz bequeaths her snare drums to Caroline Farge.
Jerry Warren wills his "worn-out barn shoes" to Jerome Janush.
Roger Warren wills his many make-up slips to Eric Erickson.
